

The Stayton Room pays homage to former U.S. Navy Captain William Stayton who founded the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment. Established in 1918, it was the first group created to fight Prohibition, and William Stayton was widely recognized as a key leader in the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

The Stayton Room embodies the spirit of The Lexington Hotel which opened amidst the Prohibition era and the "Roaring Twenties."

The craft cocktail menu is inspired by classic libations with artisanal bar fare featuring locally sourced ingredients.
